Group benefits

Health Service Navigator®

It makes it easy to navigate through health information and health care resources. And it offers a medical second-opinion service. At no added cost to you.

You can access the Health Service Navigator anytime. It's part of your health care benefits.

It's for you and your covered family members.

- It can give you access to second opinions for a serious condition. Opinions that come from doctors from world-class hospitals. Quickly, easily, and at no added cost to you.
- It can help if you're diagnosed with a critical illness. Or, you have questions about your child's chronic health condition. Or, you're curious about health care services in your area.
- It can point you to agencies or resources with information you need. It can answer questions like how to promote good health. Or, it can help with questions about a diagnosis, or treatment options.
